

Are your students emergency ready?

Make emergency education a part of your school program

The Victoria State Emergency Service (SES) now offers a range of free educational incursions for primary school students at all levels.

Being prepared

SES recognises the importance of communicating our key safety messages to school students. This gives the whole community the best chance of being properly prepared in an emergency situation and being prepared can make a big difference during an emergency.

Presentations

SES volunteers can deliver one of three interactive presentations that cover the topics of floods, storms or general emergency preparedness. Each topic is tailored to each of the different year levels and run for approximately 45 minutes. The topics include:

- FloodSafe—This presentation looks at some of the yucky and dangerous things you might find in floodwater, as well as important safety informations about floods.
- StormSafe—This presentation takes a closer look at some of the exciting and dangerous aspects of a storm including hail, flash flooding and lightning. It also includes simple tips on how you can prepare your house before the storm hits.
- Emergency Ready—This presentation contains information on all types of emergencies and what steps you need to take to plan for different emergencies such as putting together an emergency kit.
