Victoria State Emergency Service (VICSES) is thrilled to once again take part in Bunnings' annual Emergency Services Volunteer's BBQ.

The fundraiser will be held at all Bunnings stores across the country, on Saturday 20th January, between 9:00AM and 4:00PM.

Make sure you pop in and buy a snag, or you can make a donation at your local store. All funds raised will go directly to local SES and CFA units.

VICSES CEO, Stephen Griffin, said it's great to see the community come together and help support volunteers within the emergency services.
